

Performance Outcomes: Our Success in New Haven, CT

When LS is in the classroom students do better!

The Creative Curriculum Child Developmental Continuum was administered three times during the school year at the Pre-Kindergarten programs in New Haven, Connecticut. This study compares 124 students who participated in the hands-on Little Scientists program with 127 students who did not participate in that program, noting the change in their development as measured by their teachers.